Conflict of Interest

Employees/Volunteers and Trustees must declare any conflict of interest to the Practice Manager or Chair of Trustees at the earliest opportunity. For clarity a conflict of interest can be;

- where the concerns or aims of two different parties are incompatible.
- where a person is in a position to derive personal benefit from actions or decisions made in their official capacity.

This includes but is not limited to:

- employment;
- any previous employment in which Employees/Volunteers or Trustees still have a financial, or other, interest;
 - any other appointments (voluntary or otherwise) e.g. trusteeships, directorships, local authority membership, tribunals;
 - professional and organisational membership;
 - membership of any special interest groups;
 - investments in unlisted companies, partnerships and other forms of business;
 - major shareholdings and beneficial interests;
 - gifts or hospitality offered to the Trustee by external bodies and whether this was declined or accepted
 - family connections where relevant, such as the Employee, Volunteer or Trustee's spouse/partner working for a similar organisation or funder
 - using, or caring for a user of, the organisation's services
 - any contractual relationship between the trustee or a connected person and the charity or subsidiary

If an individual has any doubt or is uncertain whether there is a potential of conflict of interest they should still raise this with the Practice Manager or Chair of Board of Trustees at the earliest opportunity for them to determine whether a conflict of interest exists.

Anyone who is found to have a conflict of interest that they do not declare will either be subject to the disciplinary procedure or have their services terminated.

Criminal Convictions

Employees, Volunteers and Trustees agree to notify the Practice Manager/Chair of Trustees if they are charged or found guilty of a crime other than of minor motoring offences e.g. fixed penalty notice.

I have read and understood the above statement. I accept my responsibilities regarding confidentiality.
